Although the information contained in this report is old, it is being disseminated at this time for whatever current usefulness it may have.

The town of Filipovo, Topolovgrad Okoliya, has about 90 families. About 40 people joined the Communist Party in the first month (sic), but in time nearly all of them withdrew. Now, those remaining draw their salaries from the State Treasury and Party organizations. These do not total more than five or six people.
